TENENBAUM
LAW GROUP PLLC

Jeff Tenenbaum

Overview

Tenenbaum Law Group PLLC (TLG) Managing Partner Jeff Tenenbaum is widely recognized as one of the nation's leading nonprofit attorneys. Jeff advises boards, executives, and general counsel on the full spectrum of legal, governance, and business issues facing nonprofit organizations. His clients include charities, trade and professional associations, foundations, conservation groups, think tanks, educational and cultural institutions, international NGOs, advocacy groups, and other mission-driven nonprofit organizations. Jeff has become the go-to legal resource nationwide for countless nonprofit executives.

Drawing on more than 30 years of experience advising nonprofits as outside legal counsel, Jeff counsels clients on matters including federal tax exemption and compliance, corporate governance and nonprofit corporate law, fundraising regulation, gift restrictions, employment law, CEO employment contracts, antitrust, intellectual property, certification and standard-setting, joint ventures and mergers, subsidiaries and affiliates, lobbying and political activity, and international operations, among many other areas. He also regularly represents nonprofits before Congress, federal and state regulators, and in connection with government and internal investigations, enforcement actions, litigation, and media scrutiny. Jeff has also served as an expert witness in multiple court cases involving nonprofit legal matters, including as the New York Attorney General's lead expert witness in a high-profile case in which the Attorney General prevailed.

Before founding TLG, Jeff spent 19 years at Venable LLP, where he chaired the firm's nationally ranked nonprofit practice, served on its Board of Directors, and co-led its management review process. Earlier in his career, he worked in the nonprofit sector as Legal Section Manager for the American Society of Association Executives (ASAE) and as a legislative assistant on Capitol Hill – giving him a uniquely comprehensive understanding of both the legal and operational dynamics of nonprofits.

Jeff's leadership in the field has been widely recognized. He is one of only five lawyers in the Legal 500 U.S. Not-for-Profit Hall of Fame, one of only a handful of Leading Lawyers in Legal 500 U.S. Not-for-Profit rankings, and he is consistently listed (each year for well over a decade) in the 2012-27 editions of Best Lawyers (Nonprofit/Charities Law) and 2014-26 editions of Super Lawyers (Nonprofit Organizations). He was named Best Lawyers' 2026 Lawyer of the Year (Washington, DC, Nonprofit/Charities Law) and received the 2025 Association Industry Partner of the Year Award from Association TRENDS & CEO Update. Earlier honors include the ABA's Outstanding Nonprofit Lawyer of the Year Award and the Washington Business Journal's Top Washington Lawyers Award, among others.

Jeff is the author of the book Association Tax Compliance Guide, now in its second edition, published by the American Society of Association Executives. Jeff is a contributor to numerous ASAE books, including Professional Practices in Association Management, Association Law Compendium, The Power of Partnership, Essentials of the Profession Learning System, Generating and Managing Non-Dues Revenue in Associations, and several Information Background Kits. In addition, he is a contributor to Exposed: A Legal Field Guide for Nonprofit Executives, published by the Nonprofit Risk Management Center. Jeff is a frequent author on nonprofit legal topics, having written or co-written more than 1,000 articles.

Jeff is also a frequent lecturer on nonprofit legal topics, having delivered or moderated over 2,000 speaking presentations, including regularly for organizations such as ASAE, American Bar Association, The Nonprofit Alliance, FAR, Nonprofit Advisory Board, Nonprofit Quarterly, United Philanthropy Forum, CEO Update and Association Trends, Greater Washington Society of CPAs, Associations West, Florida Society of Association Executives, Texas Society of Association Executives, and many others.
